

Article overview

AutoDoc HSE is a brand new application, differing significantly from the old AutoDoc (non-HSE) versions. This article compares HSE features with those of an AutoDoc version 1 build. Note that AutoDoc HSE now features different editions, which include different levels of functionality. The table below assumes the Enterprise edition as the basis for comparison.

Feature comparison

Feature	AutoDoc v1	AutoDoc HSE
E-mail
E-mail delivery method – MAPI and SMTP	✓	✓
Override default e-mail method (MAPI or SMTP) at form level	✗	✓
Scheduling options for MAPI e-mail	✗	✓
Read receipt requests	✗	✓
Permissions/security/document properties for PDF attachments	✗	✓
Secure Socket Layers support	✗	✓
Fax
MS Fax support	✓	✓
MS Fax server/small business server settings	✗	✓
Fax gateway support	✗	✓
Attach extra PDF attachments to the fax	✗	✓
SMS
SMS delivery method	✗	✓
Print
Print delivery method	✓	✓
Add extra attachments to the print job	✗	✓
Add letterheads	✓	✓
Add watermarks	✗	✓
Archive
PDF archive delivery method	✓	✓
TIF archive delivery method	✗	✓

Feature	AutoDoc v1	AutoDoc HSE
XML archive delivery method	✗	✓
PDF security/permissions/document properties	✗	✓
Run external application and pass parameters	✓	✓
Run external application and pass parameters on a per-archive path basis	✗	✓
Processing
ISO character set support	✗	✓
Region-based variables and translations (for where RGB settings are not available)	✗	✓
Multi-thread support for large print loads	✗	✓
Create additional AutoDoc HSE printers	✗	✓
RAW/PCL5c support	✗	✓
Devoted service to handle printing	✗	✓
Error/Warning feedback to designated administrator	✗	✓
Digital signature support for third party signing hardware	✗	✓
PDF X3 compliance	✗	✓
Miscellaneous
Different editions to cater for different requirements	✗	✓
PDF Printer	✓	✓
PDF Scanner	✗	✓
Backup configuration	✓	✓
Backup selected forms	✗	✓

